FLYER WHO CRASHED YESTERDAY APPEARS IN PAGEANT TONIGHT

Lexington Girl To Take Part In Celebration At Cary Memorial Hall—Escaped Serious Injuries In Accident At East Boston Airport—Quick Thinking Saved Her Life As Airplane Motor Stopped—Girl Flyer Has Many Arlington Friends

Although the biplane which she was piloting over the East Boston airport crashed to the ground from an altitude of one hundred feet, Miss Margaret A. Kimball, 24, of 2117 Massachusetts avenue, Lexington, failed to lose her nerve and attended a rehearsal in Lexington last night without appearing the least bit disturbed over her experience. Miss Kimball, a graduate of Emmanuel College and former student of Boston University, still appears in a R. R. tableau as part of the George Washington Bicentennial celebration at Cary Memorial hall in Lexington this evening. Miss Kimball has taken an important part in Lexington dramatics and has appeared in several productions of the Old Belfry Club in the neighboring town. Several Arlington people have seen her in Lexington dramatics. Taking off from the airport yesterday, the young aviatrix calmly maneuvered her craft into a right bank and glided safely to the mud flats on the north side of the Boston-Revere Beach & Lynn railroad tracks when the motor of her biplane suddenly stopped. The undercarriage of the plane struck the soft mud and the ship nosed over. The propeller suffered the greatest damage but the Lexington girl got out unscratched. When mechanics and airport officials who ran to her rescue, reached the wrecked plane, Miss Kimball was calmly looking over the damage to the propeller and motor.

She was rushed to the office of Major Claude Cummings, flight surgeon of the Army Air Corps at the East Boston airport, and examination revealed that the Lexington flyer had escaped even minor injury. Army and civil authorities at the field praised the girl for her pluck and quick action in this emergency.

"I didn't have time to think about myself," said Miss Kimball. "I was too busy doing the most important thing—cutting the switch and preparing for the bump that must and did come. No, I did not have any intention of attempting to regain the airport; that would be foolhardy. Neither did I intend to land among the houses just ahead of me. My only hope was to land in the mud, which I did without a second thought."

Miss Kimball, who is an enthusiastic member of the Wing and Prop Club, a national woman's organization said that she was as enthusiastic about flying as ever. She holds a limited commercial license and has been flying her own plane for two years. She is the daughter of Mrs. Franklin Kimball.

Churches of Christ Sermon Next Sunday

"Doctrine of Atonement" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 17.

The Golden Text is: "Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation" (Hebrews 9:28).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature; old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation" (II Corinthians 5:17, 18).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The atonement is a hard problem in theology, but its scientific explanation is, that suffering is an error of sinful sense which Truth destroys, and that eventually both sin and suffering will fall at the feet of everlasting Love" (p. 23).

The Arlington High School tennis team will journey to Exeter today where it will meet the Exeter Academy team on the courts in the latter town. This is the first match for the local team.

Hereof fail not and make return of this warrant with your doings thereon at the time and place of said meeting.

ARLINGTON HIGH WINS OVER LEXINGTON NINE IN SEASON'S OPENER

"Tuesday Nite" Club Preparing For May Party

The "Tuesday Nite Club" of Arlington is making elaborate plans for a May dancing party, the date of which is to be announced later. The group is one of the most active in this town.

The committee which will have charge of the May affair comprises:

Andrew J. O'Connor, chairman; Lucille Schoonover, secretary; Louise Meade, Louise McDermott, Edward Harrington, Robert Bodfish, Louis Harris, Dorothy Munhall, Katherine Harris, Rene Toson, John Legwidge, John Allen, Alfred Baker, Francis McFarland, Charles Coligan, Clem Alberts, Eleanor McGowan, Alice Mooney, Frank Tierney, William Duncan Kane, Lucille Schoonover, secretary; Cyrille Chisolm, Maurice Harrington, Jr., William Polier, John Donahue, Arthur Silva, Kay Molloy, Lydia Molloy, Gerard LeFebvre, Ray Theriault, Henry Reeves, Joe Couran, Leo McDonald, Edward Kelley, Gordon Steele, William Quinn, John Condon, Frank Daley, Eleanor Donegan, Clem Curtin, Dorothy Pais, Mildred Shirley, Frank Donahue, Vera Alkennes, Rita Leahy, Alice Bronsnerham, Diana Tosan, Helene Tuttle, John Cooley, Philip Weiss, Ina Carlson, Dorothy Hilliard, George Dupont, Charles Wade, Charles Ames, Marion O'Connor, Charles Donnelly, Joe Casserley, Helen Ford and Catherine Meade.

The Arlington High baseball team opened its season under its new coach, Ostegren, with a win over Lexington at Parker Field in that town yesterday afternoon. The score was 7 to 2.

The game started out as a nine inning game but due to cold weather the game was called in the seventh with Arlington having the best of the battle all the way after a rather poor start. Crovo going into the box for his first time got a touch of stage fright and was nicked for a couple of hits in the first stanza. This, timed with a miscue on the part of Clarke made things look bad, but making a magnificent comeback as all stars do, he struck out two men in a row, and saved the remains for a little batting practice in the first half of the next inning.

Wright undaunted by this, whaled out a two bagger to open the fireworks. Before the Arlington boys got through their half of the inning the locals had tied the score and were once again on even basis except that they had the edge in the box. Crovo had taken his baptism of fire and was now a seasoned veteran in the mound. He was equal to the Lexington pitcher if not better and was removed only because Ostegren wished to give his youthful find of the season, Weidow, a turn at it in the sixth.

Weidow showed he really is good by knocking out four of the six batters who faced him, by the strikeout route.

Spina Excels

With brilliant fielding and a hit which drove in two of the runs, Al Spina, young Sophomore second baseman, made his debut on the team. With him was Harding in the outfield who also contributed one of the timely hits of the game.

Crovo of course was the star of the game not alone for the great game he pitched but for the home run of which he was robbed, by a marvelous stop of an opponent. Even with the ball stopped, he made a two-out.

The Arlington High baseball team, bagger on it and drove in two runs, more than enough to win the game.

It was a slow game after the first two innings, for various reasons. One, because it was a pitcher's battle with Arlington's fine pitching staff showing up the Lexington batters. Another reason was the constant interruptions by different means. All was made more noticeable due to the cool weather which was far more suitable for football than baseball.

Coach Ostegren has organized a smart team and it is hoped they stay right up where they belong, because the team is there and a championship outfit is possible with the material on hand.

American Home Program Will Interest All

A contest of luncheon table decorations will be a feature of American Home Day of the Hillside Mothers' Club on April 25. Attractive arrangements of dishes and flowers or other decorations will be displayed on early tables along one side of the hall. It is hoped that many artistic appetizing table settings will be exhibited. All those wishing to compete will place their entries in touch with contest chairman, Mrs. C. T. Walker, My to 624-M.

During the morning program, a very interesting talk and demonstration will be given by Mrs. Mabel Neal, director for the General Electric who will speak on "Arranging menus to meet reduced budgets" and will demonstrate the use of a General Electric Refrigerator in this connection.

During the afternoon session Carl A. Hemple of Lynn, director of Young people's work in the Lynn Universalist church, will make many talks with "Exhibit A—A Boy." Mr. Hemple is a splendid speaker and through his many years of work with them thoroughly competent to speak on the subject of young people's problems.

Luncheon will be served at noon on American Home day by women of the Mothers' Club in the new hall of the Hillside Universalist church, adjoining Community hall in which the main section will be held. A limited supply of tickets available which may be secured from the hostesses.

INTRIGUING HOME TALENT DAY AT MOTHERS' CLUB OF MEDFORD HILLSIDE

One of the most delightful home talent programs ever presented before the Hillside Mothers' club was given at the April meeting under the direction of Mrs. C. C. Meloon. It was delightfully amusing and very colorful. It took the form of a Mother Goose Parade, a very original treatment of Nursery friends, arranged by Mrs. Meloon from old and little known songs about these famous characters.

The program was introduced by a little prologue in which Mrs. Meloon, a grandmother, was explaining to a friend, Mrs. W. T. Larkin, about the "Sleepy Town Express" with which she sang her grandchildren to sleep. Mrs. Larkin contributed a very interesting and detailed account of the origin of Mother Goose which was a splendid introduction to the "Parade" which followed. The songs of each character were accompanied by Mrs. Myrtle Meloon Shattuck at the piano. The characters were ably portrayed as follows:

Mother Goose Mrs. D. A. Macone
Son Jack Mrs. E. R. Dunn
Mrs. Muffet Mrs. W. T. Keichum
Jack Spratt Mrs. W. A. O'Neill
Mrs. Soratt Mrs. L. J. Buckley
King Cole Mrs. M. Ranett
Goody Two Shoes Mrs. J. M. Rooney

Jack and Jill Mrs. E. N. Littlefield and Mrs. A. Horsman
Mistress Mary Mrs. H. H. Hinthlin
Bo-Peep Mrs. Wm. Thurston
Ding Dong Bell Mrs. T. Thorpe
Old Bachelor Mrs. H. N. Havender
Boy Blue Mrs. W. A. O'Neill
Simple Simon Mrs. A. C. Gray

3 Little Kittens Mrs. A. C. Green
Queen of Hearts Mrs. C. N. MacNear
Red Riding Hood Mrs. C. C. Meloon
Old Woman in the Shoe Mrs. M. L. Forest

Musical in addition was furnished by seven women from the mandolin class under the direction of Mrs. Shattuck. The afternoon was truly enjoyable.

The passage of revised constitution and by-laws was a lengthy matter of business but satisfactorily accomplished. A few reports were given among them the announcement of American Home Day, April 25, by Mrs. F. W. Sleeper. She spoke of the many interesting items of the program, and urged that all desiring luncheon tickets secure them at once, since there are only a limited number to be had. Mrs. B. L. Littlefield is luncheon chairman. President Mrs. Vernon Harris, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. H. G. Freeman and her committee served refreshments.

Art In Arlington

After giving a short introductory talk on American artists, Mrs. Barnard introduced Mrs. Alfred Drew who read a paper on William Morris Hunt, considered by many the greatest American artist.

Mrs. Drew told how he inherited his remarkable cleverness, and ability from his parents this father a judge, his mother a would-be artist; how he left Harvard to study art abroad, and became a great friend and admirer of Millet.

It was through him that many Millet originals came to Boston. One of Hunt's first important pictures, was the portrait of "Chief Justice Shaw," which will always remain one of his finest works.

Somewhat later he began his first picture of "Anahita" or "The Flight of Night," which he afterwards painted again as a decoration on the walls of the Capitol at Albany. The original picture was some fifty feet long, and was unfortunately burned in the great Boston fire which destroyed almost all of Hunt's work up to that time, besides several pictures of Millet.

The Old House in Lexington was chosen by Mrs. John Montgomery, president of the West Medford Woman's club, when she entertained her board at luncheon on Tuesday. The search for luncheon places was hilarious because of the topsy-turvy place cards, the first and last one to find hers, receiving an appropriate prize.

A delicious luncheon was served at two adjoining tables, one arranged for eight, the other for seven with Mrs. Montgomery the very gracious hostess of this jolly occasion.

At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Montgomery was presented with a surprise package, the gift of her board. This package attractively decorated with a yellow tulle bow and lavender sweet peas contained a silver console bowl. A poem accompanied it expressing the esteem, affection and best wishes of the board for their retiring president.

The meeting itself was held in a delightful Colonial room with a cheery fire glowing in an old Franklin stove. The whole day will remain a happy memory serving to recall a year of harmonious cooperation, loyal endeavor and good friendship one for another

Salads to Serve in the Spring Help to Whet Family's Appetite

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

AS SPRING calls for new clothes, new activities and new interests, so it calls for new foods. It is time to lighten the menu, give it a festive touch, introduce something that we have never served before! Homemakers know salads may be varied and should be served in abundance when the first touch of Spring fever becomes evident in the family's appetites. Here are a few excellent salad recipes.

Carrot Ball Salad: Mix 1 small package of cream cheese, ½ cup very finely diced carrots, and 10 chopped Stuffed Manzanilla Olives. Form into 12 small balls and roll each in minced parsley. On a bed of crisp lettuce place 3 paper-thin slices of carrot and on each a carrot ball. Garnish with Mayonnaise.

Frozen Cheese Salad: To 1 package soft cream cheese, add 2 tablespoons Roquefort cheese. Season with salt, pepper and ½ teaspoon onion juice. Add ½ cup highly seasoned French Dressing and ¼ cup chopped Stuffed Spanish Olives. Pour into trays of mechanical refrigerator and allow to freeze. Cut in cubes or slices and serve in nest of crisp lettuce, garnish with Mayonnaise Salad Dressing. Serve with crisp crackers.

Gelatin, Olive and Nut Salad: Dissolve 1 package lemon gelatin in 2 cups boiling water. Cool and add ½ cup chopped nuts and ½ cup Stuffed Spanish Olives, sliced. Place in an oblong pan or in individual molds to stiffen. Serve in nests of crisp lettuce and garnish with Salad Cream, which is a well seasoned, slightly tart, flavorful dressing.

Tomato Juice Aspic: Soak 1½ tablespoons gelatin in ½ cup cold water. Simmer 2 cups Tomato Juice, 1 medium sliced onion, 1 stalk of celery, 3 sprigs of parsley, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 4 cloves, ½ teaspoon salt, and ¼ teaspoon Pepper Sauce for 45 minutes. Strain; add hot liquid to gelatin, and stir until dissolved. Pour into individual molds and cool. Serve on crisp lettuce. Serves 6. Note—Chopped vegetables may be added to make a tart vegetable salad.

Now A-sailing She Will Go

By EMMA LOU FETTA

NEW YORK—There are always some outstanding fashions which the wise woman will anchor early. Beach pajamas are one of them. It may not be time yet for sunning yourself on a beach or for climbing into a canoe; but when those first hot days arrive, you'll not be nearly as much in the mood for wise shopping as you are right now. Also, the shops are showing warm weather clothes early for cruises and vacation expeditions in general.

Illustrated is a very nautical—no, we didn't say naughty—durable mesh sports pajama, which could go on the most deluxe cruise or be hung ready for the first dash to the nearest beach.

You may think it's silly to talk about salt water jaunts in a year when nobody is supposed to have any money, but a New Yorker, Mr. Frew Hall, who arranges all the details of planning cruises for people, told us the other day that really lots of people are finding it cheaper to get together attractive, reasonably priced, washable clothes and go on a cruise than to stay at home amidst the gloom. It sounds like a reasonable argument.

By the way, waist lines are wandering all over the place—high, right under the bust, to way down almost at the top of the hip bone. So far as this line is concerned any woman should be able to look her best this season.

Coal Company Originate Large Discount

The Cosmopolitan Coal Co. of 540 Eastern Avenue, Malden has successfully supplied this community with all kinds of fuel for a number of years. They do a large volume of business and are yearly building a more substantial establishment.

They are a reliable firm that gives first quality and superior service. They demand a specific standard from the mines so that they may maintain this standard with their customers. If you want the best in coal, call the Cosmopolitan Coal Co.

They aim toward the perfect coal, coal with few clinkers, no soot, maximum heat units and very little ash—coal with wonderful burning quantities and at prices no higher than that asked by others.

This coal concern can absolutely be depended upon to deliver to you the kind of coal you order. They not only aim to please but do please, as is shown by their long list of standing and repeat orders.

The Cosmopolitan Coal Co. are the originators of the bigger coal discount. The liberal cash discount of $1.00 per ton is made possible by their low overhead expense and the fact that they deal only on a strictly cash basis.

This firm specializes in superior service. They have their trucks in readiness for deliveries at all times and will make deliveries when promised. Perhaps there is nothing that brings them so much business as this reliability. They have had a wide and varied experience in the coal business and have gained knowledge that can be gained only through experience and by this are able to secure for their patrons a service not usually found in the coal business.

With this reputation for reliability and dependability, it is no wonder that they have increased their patronage until they are now one of the largest in this community. They are indeed authorities upon coal, coke and wood and its allied lines.

We wish to extend our congratulations to this progressive and efficient establishment and refer them to our many readers.

Familiar Foods in New Guise

By FREDERIC FRANCOIS GUILLOT
Chef, Hotel Astor, New York City

FREQUENTLY the most commonplace dish can be given an added appetite appeal by some slight variation in the method of preparation. Sometimes no more is required than a knowledge of seasonings—a little sugar along with the salt and pepper, for instance, to restore the garden freshness of vegetables. Again, the result may be attained by the combination of two or more familiar ingredients.

In the secret of achieving such escapes from the ordinary routine lies many a famous cook's reputation for supreme excellence in the culinary art. The housewife who recognizes the value of this secret, and gives it practical application in her kitchen, is well on the road to establishing a similar reputation in her own circle.

Stuffed Cucumbers—Cut four medium-size cucumbers in half, lengthwise. Cook until tender in boiling, salted water. Scoop out centers and fill with following mixture: one and a half cups cooked rice, three-fourths cup chili sauce, two teaspoons vinegar, two teaspoons tomato ketchup, two teaspoons sugar, one-half teaspoon paprika, salt to taste, and one onion chopped fine and sautéed in two tablespoons butter. Serve very hot.

Tomato au Gratin—Add two tablespoons tapoca to three-fourths cup boiling water and cook in double boiler. Place six or eight whole peeled tomatoes in baking dish. Sprinkle with three-fourths cup sugar, one teaspoon salt, and one-fourth teaspoon pepper. Pour tapoca over tomatoes. Melt four tablespoons butter, add one cup coarse bread crumbs, mix well and pour over tomatoes. Bake one hour in slow oven.

Sagamore is particularly fortunate in this respect because the entire course is so well drained that the water from a heavy downpour soon disappears leaving the course in playable condition after a rain. This year the frost came out of the ground earlier than usual so that there is nothing to interfere with the use of the greens.

The greens are the subject of many favorable comments by the players who state that they have never seen them in better condition.

Sagamore's Greens

The regular green are being played on at Sagamore Golf Club. The usual date for opening the greens on most golf courses in this part of the country is April 19th because up to that date there is likely to be frost in the ground and sometimes an excess of rain delays the opening.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO YOU?

Next week, April 30 to May 7, is Boys' Week.
What of it? Does it mean anything to the average man that thousands upon thousands of boys are looking forward to next week as a time that has been specifically designated as their "week"? Will Boys' Week be a success if the celebration provides merely for the gathering together of groups of boys for their own entertainment and pleasure?
Youth is naturally enamored of play; it loves romance;
it craves adventure. It is not necessary to set aside a particular period of the year for the stressing of these traits in the life of a boy. Week after week, month after month, the normal boy has the privilege and opportunity of engaging in many of the activities that make up the program for Boys' Week. Next week will be no different from any that precede or follow it unless it affords an opportunity for the boy to establish a closer relationship with the adults of the community in a way that will serve as an inspiration to both in the weeks to come.
Boys are essentially the same as they were a generation ago: they like the men who like them; they respond to the men who demonstrate an active interest in their welfare.
Many of the great men of today are frank in acknowledging that a large share of their success has been due to the friendly interest of some man during some period of their early development.

Every boy should be encouraged to participate in the activities of Boys' Week, but the men of the community will overlook an opportunity to do a vast amount of good if they do not supplement the regular program with an increased personal interest in the boys with whom they come in contact. There should not be a single boy in this community next week whose life has not been enriched by a more intimate contact with men and their world.

DOLLAR BY DOLLAR SAVINGS

Roger W. Babson said yesterday that the country is slowly preparing the way for better business. He believes that one of the surest factors in this preparation is the continued flow of savings. Although the public has been taking predictions with a grain of salt, Mr. Babson's statement seems worthy of consideration by our Arlington readers.
"No one can possibly say just how long a time will be necessary to put business back on its feet," remarked Mr. Babson, "but signs are not lacking that this process is under way. It may be two years, a little less or a little more, before we reach the solid ground of business stability. Yet I am confident we will arrive there in due time."
"What are the favorable factors? Well, for one thing, we have seen a vast deflation of debt and inflated values and every dollar of reduction means that business is on a better foundation. It is rather late in the day to inquire what caused the collapse of 1929, but if we can be certain of any one fact, we may be sure our troubles came from an excess of debt. Everybody owed everybody else—uncounted millions of money with no better security involved than a piece of paper. When the pinch came we learned an old lesson once again—that false prosperity cannot be long maintained by artificial means."
"Today I find the situation immeasurably improved. Instead of excess of debt and soaring prices we may note a careful spirit abroad. The average man is avoiding debt and paying as he goes. More important still, he is trying to save something from each day's earnings, having also learned the hard lesson that there is no protection as sure as ready money."
He further warns those whose courage needs bolstering to look to the flow of money passing into our mutual savings banks, right here at home. It is one of the remarkable developments of the times that Massachusetts savings banks are maintaining deposits and assets at a steady level after almost three years of deflation. What a truly exceptional situation this is, when we see deflation, of debt upon the grand scale, coincident with a high average of savings.
Yes, business will get better in time and one of the strongest factors in its recovery will be the day to day, dollar by dollar savings, of the average man and woman.

Daddy Sunshine Club Rules
1. Be kind and helpful to others.
2. Look both ways when crossing streets.
3. Always be kind to dumb animals.
4. Write a letter to Daddy Sunshine, or have Mother or Dad write it for you, every now and then.
5. Try to bring a "Ray" of Sunshine into the lives of your parents and others every day of the week and every week of the year.
These rules are not very difficult for good girls and boys to keep. Most of them are kept by them anyway. Mail your letters and stories to Daddy Sunshine, in care of this paper. He will answer them in the Daddy Sunshine Column.
Write on but one side of the paper, and place your age and address on the letter after your name. Give the day, month and year of your birth.
To join the club all you have to do is promise to keep the rules—and keep them.

Eugene Joins
Dear Daddy Sunshine:
I would like to belong to your club. I am 10 years old.
EUGENE INGALLS,

Medford.

Welcome Eugene, Daddy Sunshine is certain you will make an ideal member.
From Belmont
Dear Daddy Sunshine:
I would like very much to be a member of your club. I am nine years of age. I have one brother and two sisters. Livera Frankini told me all about your club, and what I've heard of it, it sounds very good indeed. There are other girls that go to my school that would like to belong also.
The name of my school is Rosary Academy. I will be very happy if you will send me a pin and picture. I will try to get some more members that will belong to your club.
Hoping to hear from you soon,
ALICE WYMAN,
22 Hillside Terrace,
Belmont, Mass.

It was splendid of Livera to tell you about the club. She and her sister are two of Daddy Sunshine's best members. He is more than happy to admit you to membership and all your school chums. If you have them write letters to Daddy Sunshine requesting membership, he will answer them and place their names on the roll. Hope you write again, and frequently. Original stories, jokes, poems, or anything which interests you, send in and Daddy Sunshine will publish them in the club column.

April Issue
Of M. H. S. Review
"The Best Ever"
On Tuesday, April 12, the M. H. S. "Review" Staff ushered in the most superb issue of the school magazine that the High school has seen in many years. The subscription totalled around 1600, the largest the magazine has ever had.
This new "Review" fairly bristles with originality and artistic talent. The full-page cartoons, and class-jokes make even the most sagacious appreciate the good manner presented in them. Its increased size, materially and physically, gives more space in which to present the varied talents of the students.
It possesses as the best of its originality a prize contest open to any pupil in the High School. The object of the contest is to guess and submit a written discussion supporting the selection as to who the unknown author of the play entitled "The Bird Carnival" is. The author is a teacher in the faculty.
May it be said that the Editor-in-Chief, Eleanore Wiles '32, and the Managing Editor, Units Pote '32 are mainly responsible for this unique issue. They have worked incessantly with their individual staffs to produce a magazine that Medford High school should well be proud of.

ON THE STAIRWAY
What magic lingers on the stair. Suggesting fond romance? One comes upon them unaware— Love scenes await his glance.
An added thrill may come to them That court in business hours. They gather from old fashioned days Who chose the nooks and flow-ers.
The grass beneath a budding tree. Near by a running brook, Was favored as a place to be, An ideal cozy nook.
It has been said that love is blind, And in this modern day, It may be so—yet it will find A place, the girl, a way.
The motor car they say is used By Spring infected pairs: But we admit we are confused At love scenes on the stairs.
—J. J. DELANEY

Homes of Beauty & Comfort

The Norwalk Is Example of Modern Dutch Colonial Type, Now Rated as Standard American Type of Home

The Dutch Colonial house has long since been listed as a standard type of American architecture. It is distinctive in appearance, and best of all, there has been no striving for effect at the expense of space or material.

Back in the days of New Amsterdam when the thrifty Dutch burghers were taxed according to their possessions and particularly according to the size of their homes, those burghers who had two story houses paid a larger tax than their brothers whose home was but one story.

Since the rooms in the attic did not add to the taxes the more astute of the settlers built their homes with two full stories, but brought the roof lines down so that the cornice or eaves were at the first floor ceiling lines, technically making them one story houses. This, claim some, is the origin of the Dutch Colonial.

The roofs of the earlier Dutch Colonial houses were pierced by small dormers which let in sunlight and air. Today the modern version has broad dormers which cover most of the side of the structure.

The Norwalk which is pictured in adjacent columns, is a modern Dutch Colonial house. It has the picturesque lines of its type and well arranged floor plans. With six rooms, bath and breakfast nook, this is a home that any family can build with the thought that they are getting full value for their money.

The dimensions of the Norwalk are 28 by 24 feet. It will set comfortably on an average size lot. The siding is broad clapboard while the shingles are composition.

Although not a cheap house, it is one that can be built by the family with average income. The house can be paid for over a period of ten or twelve years if the family will accept this purchase plan, money which should be in the neighborhood of sixty dollars monthly.

Finishing Interior Plans

The family who prefers a central hall with a residence will find the Norwalk meeting their needs. Here the living room is on one side of the entrance hall and the dining room is on the other.

The vestibule is not crowded and is provided with an inner door which keeps out wintry blasts of cold air. The entrances from the hall to both living and dining room are plaster arches. The kitchen and breakfast nook are immediately behind the dining room and are reached through a swinging door.

Beamed Ceiling

The living room is large and informal in character, the massive beams of the ceiling giving the room a striking appearance. The large fireplace against the side wall is composed of tiles which add to the informal feeling of the room. Windows on three sides give cross ventilation and let in an abundance of daylight.

The interior decorating of the walls and trim has been in keeping with the general atmosphere of the room. Tinted plastic paint was applied to the walls and odd textures worked by slapping the side of the paint brush against the stiff plastic.

At the rear of the room the staircase to the upper floor is found. The trim is in keeping with the general scheme of the room. The flight of steps reaches a broad landing from which a second flight ascends to the upper floor.

Well Arranged

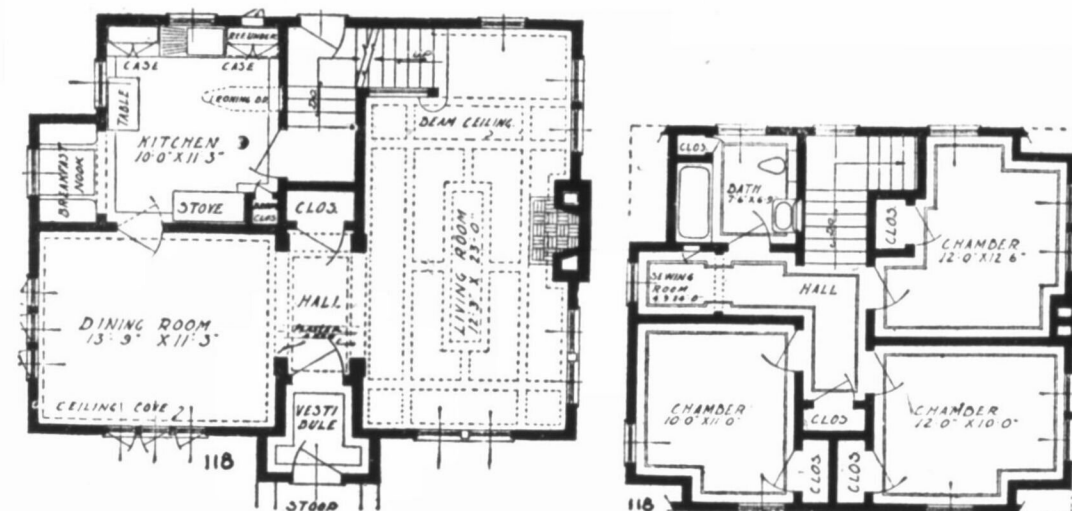

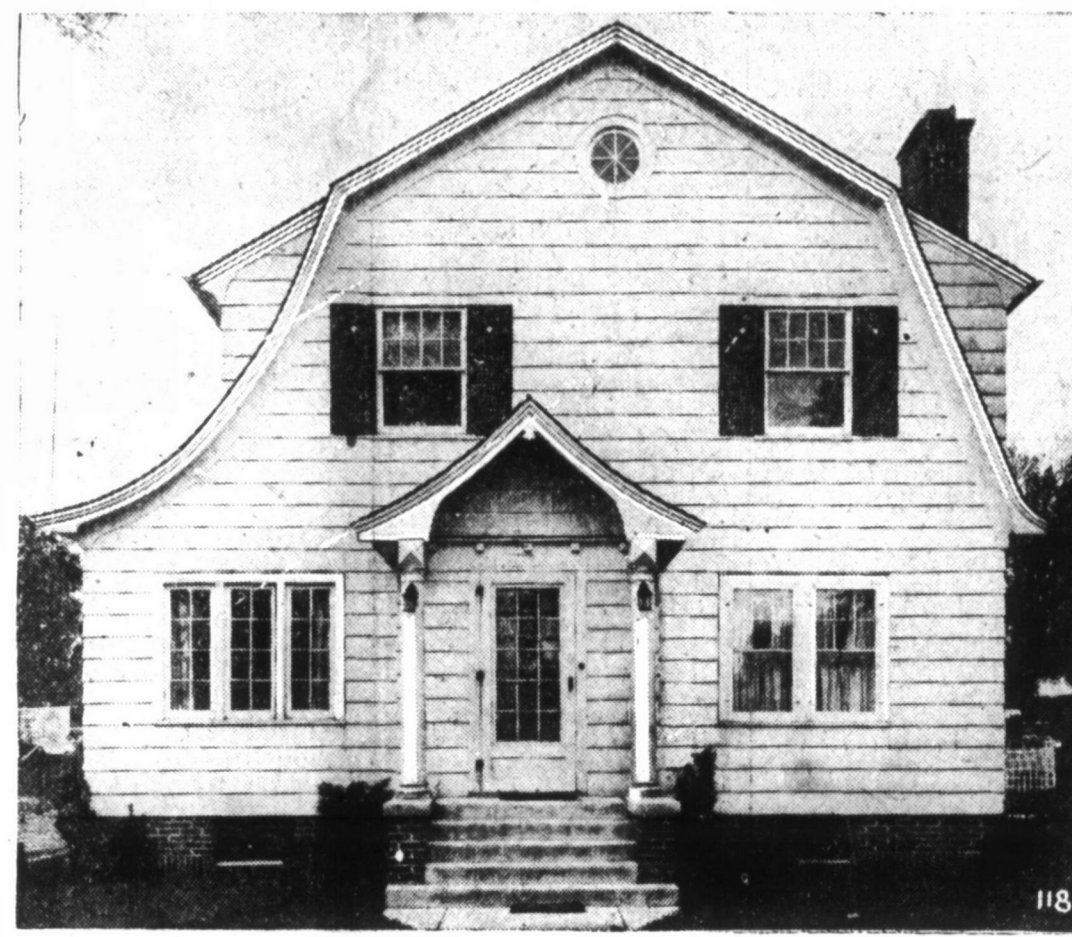

On the opposite side of the house are the dining and kitchen section. The dining room is roughly eleven by thirteen feet. The walls are tinted with a flat coat of light colored paint. The table in the center of the room is lighted by a candelabra while wall brackets are found at each side of the plaster arch leading to the hall.

The dining room is bright and cheerful, casement windows on two sides permitting the entrance of natural light and air.

The breakfast nook fits in an alcove off the kitchen. It is lighted by a doublehung window, while artificial illumination is provided by a ceiling light.

The kitchen is ten feet by eleven feet in size. Across the back wall is the sink beneath a window with a built-in cupboard on either side. Under one of the cupboards is a space for the electrical refrigerator with which the home is equipped. The plans provide an

A BUNGALOW THAT IS 'DIFFERENT'

The Norwalk is a characteristic home of the Dutch Colonial type, containing six rooms, bath and breakfast nook. Simplicity is the keynote, with no attempt to sacrifice effect for space or material. The accompanying floor plans may be studied with profit by the prospective home builder uncertain of what type of dwelling he wishes to erect.

Backyard Contrasts

A WELL PLANTED BACK YARD

THE CARELESS MAN'S BACK YARD

Back Yard Contrasts

The above sketch shows better than words can tell the value of an attractive rear yard. Surely there is something fundamental in the satisfaction one finds in the planted home and garden.

Voltaire, the great French philosopher, has written a humorous satire on life called "Candide." In this work, Voltaire pictures a few characters going through life ever seeking happiness or contentment in new and different experiences of all conceivable natures. Strangely these characters remain unhappy and dissatisfied until they finally settle down to the lowly occupation of spending their time living simply and raising vegetables and flowers in their gardens. Here it is that they finally find satisfaction and contentment in life.

Planting about the home surely makes for completeness in living. There is a satisfaction in having that which represents you look as though you were proud of having a home worth while. For those who must consider the practical, it is sound economics to invest in planting. Landscape improvements yield rich returns in satisfaction and in increasing the value of the property.

BROTHERS OF LONGFELLOW

Longfellow Chapter 117, O. E. S. of Arlington, held its first April meeting Tuesday evening with over 100 members present. At the close of the meeting the entertainment committee provided laughs galore for everyone.

A style show was presented with the brothers of the Chapter in the role of models. The plot hinged on a Mother and daughter in a Modistes shop, selecting a trousseau.

Albert Morris, P. P. was very clever in the role of French Modiste.

Dr. E. R. Brooks made a very impressive mother who knew what she wanted daughter to have, and whose outstanding accomplishment was the facility with which he used his compact and powder puff.

S. M. Ryerson was a very submissive bride-to-be and let mother have her say. The models were: Albert Schuetzer P. P. in a very striking green gown trimmed with fur and hat to match. S. C. Heath modelled a flower print and George Fisk displayed a rose and black pajama suit. Harry Baker was resplendent in orchid pajamas and coat. Edgar Downs P. P. was beautiful in beach pajamas. Axel Christensen made a snappy tennis girl. Mr. Heath appeared again in a classy sport suit.

George Long P. P. acted as a bridegroom to assist Albert M. Simmons model the brides costume and the wedding party was escorted by A. William Platin as flower girl and Jonathan Carmel as ring bearer. Arthur Heinson, Jr. and Joseph Carmel, as bridesmaids followed the bride and groom. The affair was very clever and funny and roars of laughter followed the models as they marched through the aisles. After the entertainment all were united to dance the Virginia Reel. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Pauline Davis assisted by Mrs. Eola Downs, P. M. Ida Wolmer, Arlene Gunn, Nellie Stryker, Bertha Cowdrey, Elizabeth Wood, Helen Truworth, Mattie McDonald, P. M. and Ruth Perham, P. M.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Harvey, 4 Chase street, East Lexington, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Isabelle M. Harvey, to George P. Polley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Polley of Lynn.

Arlington Theatre Hits

At The Capital
"Lady With a Past" featuring Constance Bennett and "The Hatchet Man," starring the snappy Edward G. Robinson are the two feature attractions at the Capitol Theatre in Arlington today.

A hint that any woman might well heed, both in the interests of economy and smart dressing, has its origin in a peek at the smart new costumes which Constance Bennett brought back with her from Paris to wear in "Lady With a Past."

By far the majority of her suits and dresses for daytime or sports wear are either brown or navy. Any hint of monotony is avoided by skillful use of contrasting shades in trimming, but the basic color scheme is limited to two lines.

This, Miss Bennett explains, makes possible economy in the matter of accessories and wraps. In addition she is always certain of complete harmony in every phase of her general appearance.

Over all her brown costumes, Miss Bennett can wear a pink coat, while a fox collared navy cloth coat makes a suitable wrap for several different blue frock and ensembles.

In addition to brown and navy, Miss Bennett's wardrobe shows Spanish tile, black and an odd shade of purplish blue. Her favorite colors for evening are black, white and the lighter blues.

At The Regent
Lewis Stone and Helen Hayes in "The Sin of Madelon Claudet" is the theatre attraction winding up the week at the Regent. A co-feature, the Regent presents Bill Cody in "Oklahoma Jim," a riot of a telenovela. Five acts of vaudeville complete the bill.

"The Sin of Madelon Claudet," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's adaptation of the Edward Knoblock stage success, "The Lullaby," has a cast that includes Helen Hayes, Lewis Stone, Neil Hamilton, Robert Young, Cliff Edwards, Jean Hersholt, Marie Prevost, Karen Morley and others.

Miss Hayes, who makes her first appearance on the screen in this picture, is the young actress who recently scored on Broadway in "Petitcot Influence," and previous to that play created an enviable reputation for her work in "Coquette," "What Every Woman Knows," "Dear Brutus" and "Mr. Gilbliley." She portrays the young French girl, Madelon Claudet, who makes a fatal mistake when she elopes to Paris with a young artist and is soon after involved in the scandalous arrest of a jewel thief who has befriended her.

Lewis Stone as Thief
The thief is played by Lewis Stone, who makes an abrupt departure in this role from his suave and poised characterizations of "Romance" and "Inspiration." It is the first time Stone has played a criminal; the nearest he has ever come to it being the disreputable lawyer of "The Secret Six."

As the artist who deserts the heroine, Neil Hamilton is cast in a role less sympathetic than those of "Strangers May Kiss" or "This Modern Age," thus giving him an opportunity to prove a hitherto little revealed versatility.

Cliff Edwards and Marie Prevost, as a newly married couple who are constantly at each other's throats, provide many of the laughs in the picture. Comedy lovers know what to expect of both Edwards and Miss Prevost, who recently scored outstanding portrayals in "Side-walks of New York" and "Sporting Blood," respectively.

In a production that overshadows even their stellar performances in "Dugan of the Bad Lands" and "The Montana Kid," first of Monogram's sensational "Bill and Andy" series, Bill Cody and 12-year-old Andy Shuford return in "Oklahoma Jim." Director Harry Fraser's tremendous Indian thriller.

Arlington Hears From Its Neighbors

BELMONT

The entertainment staged by the pupils of the Junior High School to raise money for the school band and athletics was repeated in the school hall Thursday evening.

The meeting of the Belmont-Waverley Post, American Legion, next Monday evening in Town Hall will be open to the public. This is one of a National-wide series of meetings being held on this date. The post band will contribute numbers for the program. There will be entertainment and sine speaking.

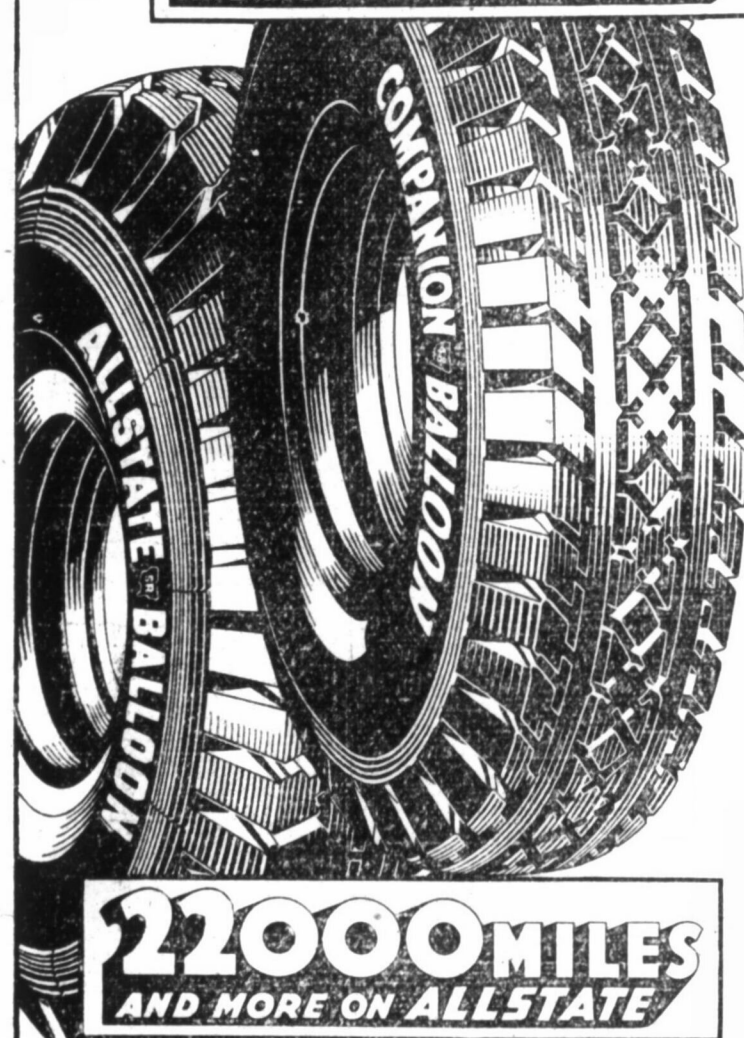

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Carmelia Bruno, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rocco Bruno, 18 Hamilton road, to Vito Guzzi of West Newton. The couple will live at 267 River street, West Newton. The bride has lived in Belmont all her life and is a graduate of the local schools. She is a pianist of note and played at one of the Boston theatres. The bridegroom is a contractor.
